

Join the Big Parade!

The ultimate Los Angeles walking event

What is it?

The second annual BIG PARADE is a two-day walk, from Angel's Flight in downtown LA to the Hollywood Sign. It covers 35 miles and 101 public stairways.

That's crazy, I can't do that!

Yes, you can - because the Big Parade route is designed so that anyone can join: for a mile, an hour, a day, or more. We walk slowly and together, and we've got special mini-walks - including a kid's segment - that really are for everyone.

What will I see?

The BIG PARADE is about visiting folks. We stop at community centers, historic spots, landmarks, and see stuff you probably never knew existed (like the spot depicted to the right, from a 1920s woodcut, that sits between two freeways - and remains unchanged today). We celebrate a genuine truth: that Los Angeles is a walkable city, right now. We even camp out!

How much does it cost?

Not a penny. No sponsors. No prizes. Just a walk with (a lot of) your neighbors.

When is it?

Saturday/Sunday, June 12/13. But you can start by joining our practice walks. Visit www.bigparadela.com for more info.
